

Andrew S. Berns, Esq. Appointed by Governor to Rutgers Board of Trustees

January 10, 2012

Andrew S. Berns, Esq. a partner at the law firm of Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC in Denville, NJ was appointed by Governor Chris Christie and confirmed by the New Jersey Senate Judiciary Committee as a member of the Rutgers University Board of Trustees.

The Rutgers University Board of Trustees is composed of 59 voting members, of which, only 5 (five) members are appointed by the Governor and must be approved by confirmation by the State Senate.

“This is a great honor,” said Mr. Berns, “I am happy to serve and as an Alumnus of the University I am thrilled to be able to give back to my alma mater.”

Andrew S. Berns, Esq. is the chair of the Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC’s, Employment and Commercial Litigation Group. In addition to his practice with the firm, Mr. Berns is also the current Chair of the New Jersey State Ethics Commission.

The lawyers of the New Jersey law firm of Einhorn, Barbarito, Frost & Botwinick, PC practice in a wide variety of areas, including Personal Injury and Workers’ Compensation, Criminal Law, Family and Matrimonial Law, Employment Law, Closely-Held Business Law, Commercial Litigation, Trusts & Estates/Taxation, and Real Estate and Zoning.